Levi Jackson State Park

The park encompasses over 800 acres with a museum and pioneer settlement. Hike in the footsteps of pioneers on two historic trails – the Wilderness Road and Boone's Trace – that carried more than 200,000 settlers into the western frontier between 1774 and 1796.

Camping: 146-site campground offers utility hookups, grocery store, dump station and three central service buildings with activities room, showers, restrooms and laundry. Reservations on-line or at 1-888-4KY-PARK.

Group Camp: The group camping area has an activities building, and may be reserved up to one year in advance.

Hiking Trails: 8.5 miles of hiking trails.

Recreational Activities: Swimming pool, miniature golf, horseshoe pits, volleyball and basketball courts. Planned recreation – seasonal.

Picnicking & Playgrounds: Three picnic shelters, picnic tables, grills and playgrounds.

Mountain Life Museum: The seven buildings in this re-created pioneer settlement are filled with relics including tools, products of agriculture and household implements.

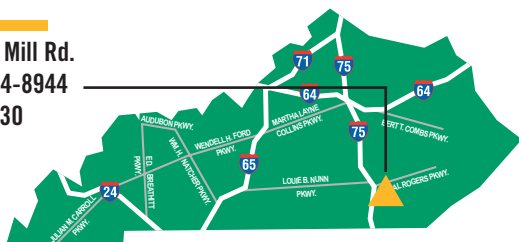

McHargue's Mill: Built on the banks of the Little Laurel River where it intersects Boone's Trace. Surrounded by the largest display of millstones in the country.

Amphitheater: The Russell Dyche Amphitheater seats 1,500.
